Produced by Manufacturer.com
ATS is back and we are bringing the latest styles in apparel with us... from readymade clothing to raw materials... hundreds of manufacturers-direct from dozens of countries worldwide. We'll spotlight our expert-led seminars, workshops, sessions & fashion show - attracting thousands of sourcing professionals in-person over three days.

ATS is Canada's largest Apparel & Textile Sourcing event...
ATS is where sourcing meets sensibility. ATS is where design mingles with production. ATS is where buyers find their match & where factories meet new customers.

ATS produced five virtual ATS trade shows during the Pandemic...
keeping our presence in front of our significant North American database of apparel & textile sourcing buyers.

ATS industry partnerships in North America and worldwide grew during 2020-21... our partners are the most renown governmental, industry, & private apparel and textile organizations worldwide. These relationships continue to be the core of our ATS foundation.

We can't wait to see you all again
August 22-24, 2022 at the Toronto Congress Centre, IN-PERSON.

Fashion Runway

The Runway is a focal-point at ATS

When the spotlight turns to the eye-popping twist of exhibitor and designer looks, the crowd expands in size and their attention is focused on the stage and runway.

ATS features special “Country-Focused” Fashion show segments designed to promote one participating country’s group of exhibits.

ATS offers a domestic runway events that have attracted major North American brands to the stage runway such as Roots, Canada Goose, and Perry Ellis.

ATS provides any exhibiting manufacturer the ability to take advantage of this runway show opportunity. Timeslots are limited and are sold in individual or group packages.
ATS works year-round to bring international manufacturers and North American buyers together. Our Matchmaking pavilions and on-site staff are one part of our 365-day Matchmaking for all exhibiting manufacturers.

Our Matchmaking pro’s give one-on-one complimentary matchmaking to all attending buyers for all exhibiting manufacturers.

Our full-time professional sourcing experts work every week of the year to connect buyers with producers of apparel, textiles & more.
